ALL ABOUT Jonathan

Introduction:

Hello, I'm Jonathan, I'm fifteen years old. I live in a city which is about 20 minutes from Paris by car.

My high school is a pretty good high school with good professors. In my class we are almost thirty students. My favorite subjects are geography-history, natural science and sports.

I won my age and weight class in the national Championship in French Boxing. I love to play ps4 with my friends, sometimes play basketball or soccer with them.

I like to eat pizza, pasta and all fast food. I also like to discover other culinary culture.

I also love spending time with God which is very important to me. I go to the church every Sunday, and I play drums in one of our worship teams.

I really want to go in America to discover another culture. But especially learn the language and to be able to speak it fluently. Even for my studies and my orientation after the baccalaureate it will be a great help for me.
